

Excellence in Technology Transfer Award Criteria

Excellence in Technology Transfer Award - Criteria

- The FLC Award for Excellence in Technology Transfer recognizes employees of FLC member laboratories and non-laboratory staff who have accomplished outstanding work in the process of transferring federally developed technology.
- The award will be based on contributions during the past ten calendar years.

Excellence in Technology Transfer Award - Criteria

- The highest score possible is 100 points. Maximum word count is 3,500 words
  - A. Description of Technology Transferred [15 points]
    1. Describe the technology transferred, focusing on advantages the technology provides and what problem or need is addressed.
[15 points/800 words]

Excellence in Technology Transfer Award - Criteria

B. The Technology Transfer Story [65 points]

2. Who was the recipient of the transferred technology, and what were their goals and objectives of each partner?
[10 points/450 words]
3. How was the partnership initiated and developed, and what technology transfer mechanisms, resources, and/or activities were used and in what timeframe? Specifically describe the excellence in the technology transfer effort
[40 points/1000 words]
4. Describe each nominated team member's role, including any innovation or creativity demonstrated in transferring the technology. [15 points/650 words]

Excellence in Technology Transfer Award - Criteria

- C. Outcomes of Technology Transfer [20 points]
  - 5. Describe how this technology transfer effort met laboratory goals and furthers the agency's mission requirements, any public gains achieved through its transfer, and the result and impact. [20 points/600 words]