

Rookie of the Year Award Criteria

Rookie of the Year Award - Criteria

- The Rookie of the Year Award recognizes the efforts of an individual FLC laboratory technology transfer professional (or team) who has demonstrated outstanding work in the field of technology transfer in a manner significantly over and above what was called for in the normal course of their work during the past year.
- The nominee(s) must be new to technology transfer, (each) with three years (or less) experience in a technology transfer position.

Rookie of the Year Award - Criteria

- The highest possible score is 100 points. Maximum word count is 1,400 words.
 1. Describe how the nominee has demonstrated exceptional service performing their technology transfer professional responsibilities within their laboratory's technology transfer organization over the past year. [40 points/600 words]
 2. Specifically identify and describe an example of the nominee's innovative approach or creativity to addressing a technology transfer need and demonstrable results. [30 points/400 words]
 3. Specifically identify and describe the impact of the nominee's exceptional service to date and how that impact is determined by the laboratory. [30 points/400 words]